

The ISO-Base system has available accessories such as ramps, and staging platforms, for loading on and off of built-out platform rows.

There are also various brackets used for building out rows with different length or other special configurations.

The ISO-Base™ Bearing Restraint, Connector Strap, and Extra Leveling Foot all are used to improved the performance of the standard ISO-Base™ Platform.

